

HandsOn Central California is seeking your sponsorship support for the 51st annual Hands Across the Valley awards ceremony. This premier Volunteer of the Year luncheon, to be held Wednesday April 26th, 2017, recognizes volunteers from across our region who transform their communities through their gift of time and talent. HandsOn Central California's core belief is that volunteerism benefits both society at large and the individual volunteer by strengthening trust, harmony and reducing isolation among citizens, and by purposefully creating opportunities for participation.

The levels of available sponsorships are:
