

Program Overview

Out of Office, Into Nature is SOLVE's one-stop solution for corporate volunteering. Our services include managing projects that give back to our natural areas, obtaining proper permitting, and guiding volunteers through their outdoor adventure in giving back.

What are the benefits of corporate volunteering?

Employees value community involvement, volunteerism, and time out of the office. SOLVE's Out of Office, Into Nature program can increase morale and employee satisfaction, support ongoing company health and wellness initiatives, and help companies meet their goals to improve our natural environment.

What SOLVE Provides
