

Hands On AT HOME

Want to make a difference while practicing effective social distancing? Check out these great #ActsOfService for ideas on how you can brighten a neighbor's day during this unprecedented time. Make sure to share your good deed on social media and tag @handsonmiami and #actsofservice to inspire others to do the same!

Students who wish to receive service hours should follow the guidelines outlined on www.HandsOnMiami.org/at-home to receive credit for your hours.

ACTS OF SERVICE CHALLENGE IDEAS

- Walk around your neighborhood with a garbage bag and gloves to pick up litter
- Offer to rake leaves, pick up sticks or mow the lawn of a neighbor
- Plant flowers or a vegetable garden in a communal neighborhood area
- Pick up and deliver groceries or medicine for someone in need
- Gather up books and unused school supplies to donate to your local school or library
- Organize a "spring cleaning" project and donate your unused items that are in good condition to a local charity
- Participate in a DIY volunteering project at www.handsonmiami.org/diy
- Take time to share your education and skills with others who can benefit from them. Lead an online painting class, fitness session or professional development training session to help others learn new skills
- Sign up with an organization to make wellness calls to home-bound seniors
- Videotape yourself reading a children's story by participating in HandsOn Broward's Storytime Heroes project at www.handsonbroward.org/at-home
- Donate non-perishable food to a local organization working to feed the hungry
- Build and place bird feeders in your yard for local wild birds
- Pet sit for a neighbor in need

Do you have a great idea? Create your own act of service and share it with on social media!
