

COURT-APPOINTED VOLUNTEERS

Thank you for your interest in completing your court-appointed hours with Food Bank For New York City. Your help is appreciated!

We verify hours and cooperate with any reasonable paperwork required.

Important:

In order for Food Bank For New York City to verify your hours, you must email the following information to volunteer@foodbanknyc.org:

- Copy of official document(s) that clearly explain the reason for your service, specifying what the original charge/offense was and the decision of the court.
- A clear copy of government issued photo ID (passport, driver's license)

We are unable to verify hours for volunteers accused or convicted of violent crimes, sexual offenses, illegal weapons possession, or theft.

Your information is kept confidential.

Thank you for your interest and support in ending hunger in New York City.
